Wife's Little Trick.

Do you know how to take your time in dressing when you are going out with your husband without having him bite the head off you every few minutes as he inquires if it is going to take you all night, or all day, as the case may be, to get ready? Here is one little wife's trick:

"Having stood this thing as long as it was possible," she said, "I determined to give John something to keep him employed while I dressed. So every time he asks me when I'll be ready, I answer with confidence, 'Just as soon as you go.' Then I slip off and hide his hat, cap or gloves, and while he hunts the missing articles in silence, not daring to ask me where they're abouts after his repeated insinuations on 'woman-carelessness,' I take my time in dressing without fear of a lecture."

Needs assistance it may be best to render it promptly, but one should remember to use even the most perfect remedies only when needed. The best and most simple and gentle remedy is Syrup of Fig, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup company.
